To qualify, applicant must be a full-time student (at least 12 credit hours per semester) enrolled in architecture; architectural, structural or civil engineering; construction management; building sciences or other related areas of study. Up to 25 students are eligible to receive this funding twice. Depending upon availability, up to three students from the same university may be selected.

The sponsorship includes IIBEC convention registration, up to four nights lodging (single occupancy) at the convention hotel, a stipend for meals not covered, cost of travel up to $500 USD (receipts required), and a one-year IIBEC student membership.

As a sponsorship recipient, you will be required to:

- Attend a minimum of ten hours of educational presentations and devote three hours to the trade show floor
- Interact informally with assigned mentor, staff, committees and the Foundation Board of Directors during the convention
- Participate in marketing efforts by sharing your experience of the convention and the knowledge gained
- Attend 2022 Foundations' Auction event on Sunday night as a guest of the RCI-IIBEC Foundation

- 1. Please attach a letter of recommendation from a professor or mentor.*
- 2. Include an essay explaining your interest in your field of study and what you hope to gain by attending the IIBEC International Convention and Trade Show (limit 300 words).*

Please check the box confirming that you are a full-time student:

I confirm the information provided by me is accurate. I have read and agree to comply with the above requirements as a sponsorship recipient.
