To qualify, applicant must be a full-time student (at least 12 credit hours per semester) enrolled in architecture; architectural, structural, or civil engineering; construction management; building sciences or other related areas of study. Up to 40 students are eligible to receive this sponsorship. Depending upon availability, up to three students from the same university may be selected.

The sponsorship includes IIBEC convention registration, up to four nights lodging (single occupancy) at the convention hotel, a stipend for meals, cost of travel up to $750 USD (receipts required), and a one-year IIBEC student membership.

As a sponsorship recipient, you will be expected to:

- Attend a minimum of ten hours of educational presentations and devote three hours to the trade show floor
- Interact informally with assigned mentor, staff, committees, and the Foundation Board of Directors during the convention
- Participate in marketing efforts by sharing your experience of the convention and the knowledge gained
- Attend Foundations Auction and Reception event on Monday night

1. Please attach a letter of recommendation from a professor or mentor.

2. Include an essay explaining your interest in your field of study and what you hope to gain by attending the 2023 IIBEC Convention and Trade Show (limit 150 words).

Please check the box confirming that you are a full-time student:

I confirm the information provided by me is accurate. I have read and agree to comply with the above requirements as a sponsorship recipient.
